

Bizdaily 30 June 2020, 'Rethinking the future'

a radical vision	distribution channels tech prophets	to lock yourself in an echo-chamber be on the cusp of sth	the building blocks a transformational upheaval	a solar-wind matrix confluence of new technologies	on the rooftop to wipe out poverty	self-generation hazy vision	precision fermentation a distant utopia	to make proteins a rapid energy transition	to wipe out animal agriculture a futurological duo	to move away from industrial structures slow and linear	non-organic materials to sweep away sth	extractive processes to swamp sth within sight	to break sth down into to delve deep into sth	to cut out waste the system dynamics	be resource-efficient a convergence of sth	indulgent battery-powered robot taxis	to kick-start the conversation on demand transportation	to manage the transition successfully a lifetime of a vehicle	to turn out to be benevolent road space required	a dystopian scenario one-for-one substitution	a lot to take in to engage in information warfare	it's well worth a read
