

How to spot fake news

digital literacy	biased to create a stir	to tell the difference to blow the whistle	to play on your biases the flipside of the coin	a random account to raise an issue	partisan lens in the run-up to elections	fact-checking sites to comb through the info	resource constraints a covert action	have your hands full terms floating around	to do mental gymnastics hoaxes	cherry-picked information to spread false news	to flood the system targeted messaging	a snippet of sth to hook sm	a resilient population to pool a mass amount of data	at your fingertips state-run media	tech-savvy be slow in responding

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/w3csz7k5>