

What happens to whistleblowers

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/w3ct1j4h> to delve into the world wrongdoing

to lash out at sm
to act on the information offshore accounts
to dig around
tight-lipped
damage to the career
too hot to handle
in the business terms
loyal to the company
ensuing loss of
charged with corruption all walks of life
brazenly fraudulent
to speak out
an unwilling celebrity
to attract headlines
a public figure
by choice
to put a toll on the marriage to say sth in your face to rock the boat
an unblemished career
integrity
to underpin sth
to jeopardise sth
be lined with unfortunate stories blacklisted for life

to call out wrongdoing
to turn a blind eye to sth to put a career on the line to make a stand
exploited labour
to blow the whistle on sm to bring to light sth
to turn against sm
to side with the truth teller groupthink
abusive behaviour
to prove costly
in desperation
to offer little protection to report internally
to sideline a career
be confronted with hard truth snitch mentality
to address sth internally to put a burden on sm
to retaliate
to reverse the burden of proof to follow suit
to go public with sth
to go through a trauma
obliterated
clear conscience
to live by the values