

„Sustainable investing”

it's all the rage

corporate social responsibility in the face of the threat misconception

a former insider

a titanic shift in sth to design a sustainable portfolio to spearhead a new investment philosophy to re-allocate assets to sth to drive long-term financial performance to divest from coal-based stocks to call on companies to do sth green-washing

to make a lot of noise

to fulfil duties to have a social purpose to change the course of sth to reinvent capitalism

a departure from a consensus to produce a better outcome for society an unfortunate reality to do the right thing to focus on return to achieve high yields financially incentivised

have no leeway

to see sth first hand rampant across the economy to turn sth green to align sth better with social goals no demonstrable impact to move money around the markets to shift the needle of sth detrimental to credibility to slap a green label on sth to advance social imperatives a deadly distraction to reassert the role

in a pursuit of profit to play dirty

stakeholders' capital to put a price on sth

a blanket carbon tax to peddle an idea

to come to the table

to look back on sth

to cast aspersions on sm to sleepwalk

to slow critical action to come at a cost topical

environmental credentials

be far behind sth

stringent measures

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/sounds/play/w3ct1j57>