

Law in Action 'False Memories' 2 Nov 2021

a backlog of jury trials to lead to miscarriages of justice

a partial false memory

to identify red flags

leading or suggested interview practices to implant a false idea in sm's mind to abuse trust

in a controlled research setting to make things up to fill in the gaps confabulation

to make sense of the world on the recommendation of a therapist to put sm on bail

to bring charges

to build evidence

wrongly convicted of sth

to get to grips with sth

corroborative evidence

to shake sm up

to go according to plan

the default position

to take the view

to keep sth behind closed doors to stick to the rules

to win sm over

a bitter battle over sth

sinister

a pushback

a safety valve

to react abnormally

in a nutshell

to allocate money

to set sth in context

through no fault of your own appalling figures

to drop a case

the process of attrition

to wait for justice

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/m00114br>