

A Point of View 'Donatello' 17 Feb 2023

technically stunning

deliciously plump and secure locked in eye contact

a gateway into sth

a living memory

a brutal culling of the population to lay the foundation

to redefine sth

civic responsibility

with breathtaking naturalism

an exercise in humility

to stumble

a shattering pandemic

to export a value system

a polarised moment

to trumpet sth

a grotesque war

dressed up in some terms

a deluded version

to feel outdated

the subjugation of race

the toxicity of the present an avid book hunter

the fear of annihilation

hand-copied

a pursuit of decadence

a roadmap for sth

tranquillity

to urge moderation over excess

the pursuit of ideas

to travel weightlessly

to pack a punch

mischievous

grief-stricken

a rich conversation
