

Word of Mouth Lying 21 Jan 2020

forensic examination

language of deception

a toss of a coin

common misconceptions

evasive

shifty

to make eye contact

gaze aversion

to feed into the idea

for altruistic purposes

truth bias

to hold water

false beginnings

to drop your volume

to unravel sth

baseline behaviour

indicators of deception

manipulators

self-focus pronouns

distancing behaviour

to give an account

to give denials

multiple negation

an open-ended question

image management

stance markers

to pick up on sm

to stay off topic

intents and purposes

to put sm out of harm's way to go with your gut

evidence of guilt

to show a mental state

different coloured lenses

emphatic markers

credibility qualifiers

idiosyncratic behaviour

to jump to conclusions

a thank you speech

to couple sth with

to sound emotional

a safety mechanism

in real time

to give rise to a clue

to bundle sth