to adopt a pattern

to come to an end

to follow a model

too good to be true

to win a lottery

to reset yourself

without feeling guilty

a game-changer

to recruit and retain the cost of living crisis

in desperate need

to take a toll on sm

to factor sth in

self-harming

risk planning

contingencies

a leap of faith

to do research beforehand

best performing people

to do the prep

on a day-off

to caution sm

to obsess about sth

rates of attrition

absenteeism

a testament to sth

to run a trial

a catalyst

the jury is still out

the cost-benefit analysis

energised workforce

to turn back the clock

to look elsewhere
